Message from the Principal:

Dear Parents

The school holidays are fast approaching and we have a busy week ahead of us next week.

Music Performance

On Monday morning at 9.05 families are invited to listen to the whole school music performance. Each class will be performing their own piece which they have been working hard learning with Conrad each week. There will also be a whole school song. Conrad will finish up on Monday for the year as in Term 4 our focus turns to our own Production. Thank you to Conrad for all his hard work.

Excurion to Mt Beauty

On Wednesday we will be leaving school at noon to head to the Community Centre to watch the Mt Beauty PS Year 5/6s perform their production of ‘Shiver me Timbers’. The bus will return at approximately 3pm. If the weather is fine students will eat lunch and have their lunch play at the playground. Please return the attached permission form prior to Wednesday.

Cricket Clinic

On Thursday morning we have a guest from Cricket Victoria coming to run a cricket clinic. The school will be divided into two groups, P/1 and 2/6.

Yr 3/4 Howmans Gap Camp

Information was sent home to students this week regarding the Yr 3/4 biannual camp to Howmans Gap from 4th - 6th November. A deposit is required by next week and expressions of interest sought for a parent volunteer.

BIG WRITE and TALK HOMEWORK

There is no, Talk Homework this week as next week will be a Cold Write for all students. This means that they will not have time to prepare and will need to use all their skills learnt over the term to write without assistance. This piece will then be assessed by teachers staff during our professional learning meetings. Teachers will then plan accordingly for Term 4. The Beginning of Term 4 will see us focusing on Poetry.

Bounce Back

This week in Bounce Back Mrs Gorham’s group talked about different types of put downs and how they affect us. Students then wrote or drew a picture of a time when they had experienced a put down. The class followed this with a ceremonial ‘Dumping of the put downs’ into a garbage bin because put downs are ‘rubbish’.

Kim Franzke
Principal
It was great to see all the Dads and some Grandads last Friday morning for our annual Fathers Day breakfast. Thank you to all the parent helpers particularly Lisa and Mark Lucey and Carolyn Franzke for being at school before 7am and staying until final pack up after 9am. We hope that all our Dads had a great day on Sunday with their children.
